DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1 to 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the support surface" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "its internal edges" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 to 4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Liu (5,774,917). Liu shows an air mattress that comprises a series of transversely extending air cells 1 that can be alternately inflated and deflated to move a patient laying upon the mattress. Each cell 1 is subdivided into a right cell 11 and left cell 12 split by a central partition 10, with an air inlet 34 being provided to supply each cell half with pressurized air through a pair of conduits 35, 35a. Each air cell 11, 12 include a secondary embedded air cell 2 of substantially cubic form that is separately inflated and deflated through an air inlet 31 and conduit 32. The embedded cells 2 act as a side barrier for a patient being turned by the alternate inflation and deflation of the air cells 11, 12, as shown in Figures 7 and 9.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5 to 7 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. O'Kane, Flick, James et al, Perez et al, and Lineback show air mattresses that have integrated side bolsters and reinforced edges which are of interest.
